NOW READY.
IMPERIAL QUARTO.
ENGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY, WITH THE
PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.
AN ANGLO-CHINESE DICTIONARY, by the Rev. W. LOBSCHEID, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong.

FOR scope and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.
The scope of the work is so great, and its utilitarian purposes so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully, with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasionally.
It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages.

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY.

NEW ILLUSTRATED EDITION.
In one vol. of 1840 Royal Quarto Pages
THOROUGHLY REVISED AND MUCH ENLARGED.
Over 3000 fine Engravings.

10,000 Words and Meanings not found in any other Dictionary.

Over thirty able American and European Scholars employed upon this revision, and thirty years of labor expended upon it.

SEVERAL TABLES of great value, one of them of fifty quarto pages, Explanatory and Pronouncing, of names in fiction of persons and places, pseudonyms, &c., &c.; containing one fourth more matter than any former Editions.
In all the essential points of a good dictionary —in the amplitude and selectness of its vocabulary, in the fullness of its definitions, in its orthography, in its carefully prepared and valuable appendices, and in its general accuracy, completeness, and practical utility, the work is one which none who read or write can afford to dispense with. The present edition of Webster contains thirty per cent. more than the old edition; is printed from new electrotype plates and "Riverside Press."

cance and powerlessness for good of men, like ourselves, without any official status in an atmosphere so charged with officialism as that of the Yamen, and thinking it desirable that we should be placed in such a position as was necessary to give us some voice and weight in the control and regulation of the studies, we did by way of supplement make the suggestion that a brevet rank should be granted to us. But we did not ask to be made magistrates, as our critic in his ignorance of things Chinese, supposes. A very elementary knowledge of Chinese matters would have prevented his making the ridiculous blunder of supposing that a button of the fifth rank carries with it necessarily the functions and powers of a magistrate. Two employés of the Arsenal in Shanghai, Messrs. Fall and Stevenson, some time ago got buttons of the fourth rank, that is of the rank of Taotai; but neither of these gentlemen, as far as I know, exercises the functions of a Taotai. Several Commissioners of Customs have lately got buttons of the fifth rank, but I have not heard of their wielding the powers of prefects. Mr. Hart has, or has had, the rank of Judge of assize, but he has never put on the black cap, and does not wish to. The Chinese teachers with whom we are daily confronted in the Yamen, have official buttons (some of them of the fifth grade), but this does not make them magistrates. It simply gives them the status of gentleman, and by imparting dignity to their position, it creates additional claims to the respect and obedience of their pupils. And it is difficult to see why the Professors of the literature and science of Europe should occupy a subordinate and inferior position to the native teachers. Sir Rutherford Alcock, whose judgment I rate higher than that of our critic (pace tanti viri dixerim) once said to me—I do not profess to quote his exact words—"I am of opinion that the foreign Professors should have a high rank in the Yamen; and they should be provided with the means of going there with the same state and surrounding, that respectable Chinese officials affect." It is all very well for a person writing in the centre of Cockneydom to speak with elegant tautology of these things as "childish puerilities." A button of the fifth rank is, in London, simply a bit of glass; in Peking it carries with it respect and consideration; and these, sir, are things which few people affect to despise, except those to whom they have been denied.

Our second demand, according to the writer in the Express, was for "runners to precede our chairs." He might just a well have said we asked for a palace and a body guard of Eunuchs. In Peking, as every one in China knows, only officials of the very highest rank, ministers of state, and heads of boards have the privilege of going in chairs. It is not likely we would ask for permission to use chairs when Mr. Hart, from whom we hold our appointments, goes (his last promotion which gives him a red button will, I believe, entitle him to a chair) in a cart. The "runners" exist only in our critic's head. I have never seen any in Peking, nor has any one else. It is excusable in a person who has never been to China to be ignorant of Chinese usages, but it is not excusable that such a person should speak as if he knew all about them, and dogmatise on matters involving reference to them, in a spirit of self-importance worthy of Sir Oracle himself. Such assumption would be very offensive were it not very ridiculous.

As regards the third count in the indictment, namely, that we requested permission to wear the Chinese official dress, while lecturing. Does the writer suppose that I would need to ask any one's permission to wear that dress if I chose to do so? He is evidently not aware that the official dress—that modification of it at least which is worn at the Yamen, and between which and a court suit there is no analogy,—as the writer in his ignorance supposes,—may be worn even by a person who has no official rank. The Chinese would only be too glad to see us adopt their dress, and our students would feel far more at home with, and less ashamed of, sitting at the feet of teachers clad in what they regard as a civilized costume, than they do at present. There is a great deal in clothes, as the philosopher of Weissnichtwo has shown, and the remark is more applicable to Asia than to Europe even, as every one who has resided in the East knows. The foreign dress is peculiarly shocking to an isolated and conceited people like the Chinese. It has been said, and, I believe, with truth, that much of the superior success of the Catholic as compared with other missionaries, is due to the former assumption of the native dress by the former. I did not ask to wear the Chinese dress as a privilege; I offered to do so (in case I got an official rank) for a short time daily, as an act of courtesy, a graceful condescension to the harmless prejudices of the people among whom I live, and whose bread I eat. I only offered for myself, and my French colleague only offered for himself. The other professors were not at all pleased when they heard of what we had done, and I have a letter from one of them taking me to task roundly for what he regarded as a humiliating concession on my part. I may have been wrong, but at all events the matter is very unimportant, and I was quite surprised to see it figuring by the side of the Burlingame mission, in a leading article

"Satire or sense alas! can Sporus feel
Who breaks a butterfly upon a wheel?"

Surely a man ought to be allowed to wear any dress, consistent with decency, he pleases, without directing public attention to him for it in the newspapers. And our English dress is not such a perfect thing that an occasional departure from it should not be treated as a condonable offence. Does the writer of the article carry patriotism so far as to suppose that a cut-away coat, and a chimney-pot hat are the dernier mot of the vestiary art? "Just fancy," this wiseacre says, "a Chinese Professor at an English College insisting on being made a magistrate, lecturing in a Court suit, and requiring the Foreign-office to provide him with outriders to precede his carriage." Now, sir, I do not wish to bandy compliments with such a master of the art as my critic, but I really cannot help calling the above twaddle. In the first place the comparison is absurd. I know of no English College in which there is a Chinese professor, or in which there is likely to be one. If such a college should ever exist, it is not likely to be located in the Foreign Office, Downing-street. If the imaginary Chinese Professor were to insist on being made a magistrate, he would probably be sent to a Lunatic Asylum. Were I to make such a demand here, I would merit the same treatment. But if that Professor were to insist on having the status of a gentleman, no friend of letters, no educated man, would endeavour to turn him into ridicule for doing so. And this is what we insisted on; for our demand, as I have shown, really amounts to this. The Court suit in England is worn by ordinary people once or twice in a lifetime. The Chinese officials of all grades go every day to their Yamens in their official dress, and it would be a breach of etiquette to go without it. The outriders and carriage correspond to the "chairs and runners" which our vivacious critic represents us as having demanded, though we never did so. Finally, I object to the assumption that I am in any way bound to model my conduct by that of any Chinese Professor, whether he be at a college in Peking or one in London, or one in Timbuctoo.

More I might say but I have already trespassed too much on your space. One parting word of advice to the critic. Let him read Williams's Middle Kingdom, if he intends to treat of Chinese matters again.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
M. J. O'BRIEN,
Professor of English,
T'ung-Wen-Kwan, Peking.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE UNION DOCK COMPANY OF HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA, LIMITED.
THE Company call the attention of Ship Owners, Consignees, and Masters of Vessels to their establishments at HONGKONG and WHAMPOA, for the DOCKING and REPAIRS of Vessels of all classes.
At Hongkong the Company have the only Dock in the Harbour,—a granite Dock, solidly built; and of dimensions to admit ships of 350 feet in length, and drawing 22 feet of water.
Attached to it the Company have erected powerful machinery, and are prepared to manufacture and repair marine and stationary Engines, and steam machinery of all kinds; to make and repair Boilers of all sizes, or machinery for sugar crushing and refining, shafting, gearing, and every description of factory or mill work.
A commodious Jetty has been completed, alongside of which vessels drawing 18 feet of water can lay at any state of the tide; attached to the Jetty are shears capable of lifting Fifty Tons.
The Company have also opened a Ship Yard by the side of the HONGKONG DOCK, and are ready to contract for the construction of Steamers or Sailing Vessels of any size.
At Whampoa, the Company will take Ships at reduced rates.
The Steam Tug Little Orphan can be engaged to tow Vessels to sea, or berth them, at reasonable rates.
For Particulars apply to

LEA AND PERRINS' Celebrated WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, DECLARED BY CONNOISSEURS TO BE THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE.
CAUTION AGAINST FRAUD.
The success of this most delicious and unrivalled Condiment having caused certain dealers to apply the name of "Worcestershire Sauce" to their own inferior compounds, the Public is hereby informed that the only way to secure the genuine, is to ASK FOR LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE, and to see that their names are upon the wrapper, labels, stopper, and bottle.
Some of the foreign markets having been supplied with a spurious Worcestershire Sauce, upon the wrapper and labels of which the names of Lea and Perrins' have been forged, L. and P. give notice that they have furnished their correspondents with power of attorney to take instant proceedings against Manufacturers and Vendors of such, or any other imitations by which their right may be infringed.

THE PERFECTION OF PREPARED COCOA.
MARAVILLA COCOA
Sole Proprietors—TAYLOR BROTHERS, London.
THE COCOA (or CACAO) of MARAVILLA is the true THEOBROMA of LINNÆUS, Cocoa is indigenous to South America, of which Maravilla is a favoured portion. TAYLOR BROTHERS having secured the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, have, by the skilful application of their soluble principle and elaborate machinery, produced what is so undeniably the perfection of prepared Cocoa, that it has not only secured the preference of homœopaths and cocoa drinkers generally, but many who had hitherto not found any preparation to suit them, have, after one trial, adopted the Maravilla Cocoa as their constant beverage for breakfast, luncheon, &c.

"A SUCCESS UNPRECEDENTED."
See following Extract from the Globe of May 14, 1868.
"Various importers and manufacturers have all attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of "Maravilla" Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For Homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage."
Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate.
